

A gift has been given in your honor to

Baby Bundles

Moved by their own heartbreak and a passion to help young moms, Charlotte friends Emily Harry, Heather Leavitt and Cat Long founded Baby Bundles in 2010. Having each suffered the loss of an infant, they launched Baby Bundles (www.babybundlesnc.org) to provide new moms in need with a bundle of newborn clothes, warm blankets and an interactive newborn toy. Each bundle also includes a blessing card and essentials for the first six months.

This gift, through the Alternative Gift Market, helps the non-profit possess the resources to obtain goods and get them into the hands of young moms and families. As Emily, Heather and Cat have said, "We see this as a gift from our children to theirs."
