

A gift has been given in your honor to

Charlotte Community Health Clinic

Charlotte Community Health Clinic is a medical clinic for Mecklenburg County residents who are low income and uninsured. The Clinic improves the health of their patients by engaging the community and its resources in providing quality low-cost, compassionate healthcare. The Clinic meets emergency health care needs and provides ongoing health services to foster continuing medical health. They offer a specialized clinic for women and the only dedicated, low-cost pediatric clinic in Mecklenburg County.