Lily Pad Haven

The mission of Lily Pad Haven is to provide housing for survivors of human trafficking and to coordinate transitional services for them. This nonprofit agency provides services to females 18 years and older, who have been referred by anti-trafficking agencies. Their goal is to provide safety, shelter, and respite to human trafficking survivors while they work toward transitioning from a painful period, to stability and hope in the next phase of their lives.

Locations of houses where survivors stay are not disclosed for the safety and confidentiality of the guests.

Your gift will help residents move toward independence and reclaim a safer, more secure, and more productive future.
