

A gift has been given in your honor to

Pass the Peace

Pass the Peace is a program designed to increase dialogue between groups that might historically view the other suspiciously. Committing to 4 to 6 gatherings, a combination of youth, adults and police, each of differing ethnic groups, will share meals, experiences and perspectives. Pre-determined questions help drive each conversation as group members learn what it's like to walk in another's shoes.